Simla, the 24th September 1940.

PRESS NOTE.

ENEMY PROPERTY IN INDIA.

Holders to furnish returns by October 31*st.*

As a result of the entry of Italy into the war, all property in India, moveable and immoveable, belonging to Italian subjects and Italian firms abroad is enemy property and has vested in the Custodian of Enemy Property. Banks and such of the public as have in their custody any property belonging to persons of Italian nationality abroad are required to submit before the 31st October 1940 full particulars relating to such property in the prescribed forms, which can be obtained from the Custodian of Enemy Property, Contractor Building, Ballard Estate, Bombay, the Deputy Custodian of Enemy Property, 22, Central Avenue, Calcutta, or the Inspector of Enemy Firms and Assistant Custodian of Enemy Property, Madras, Imperial Bank Building, First Line Beach, Madras, on application (with the necessary postage, if not applied for personally).

These forms have been prescribed in the Enemy Property (Custody and Registration) Order, 1939, issued by the Government of India under rule 114 of the Defence of India Rules, and the returns to be submitted in these forms are, therefore, statutory returns which the public are under an obligation to furnish.

2. The property in India of all persons resident in or bodies of persons incorporated in countries which are for the time being in enemy occupation is also enemy property and such property has vested in the Custodian of Enemy Property. Proceeds of bills drawn by such persons or bodies of persons in countries now in the occupation of the enemy should not, therefore, be remitted direct to those countries. They have to be paid into the Personal Ledger Account of the Custodian of Enemy Property with the Reserve Bank of India, Bombay, unless in any case a special order has been issued that such payment is unnecessary.

Returns in respect of all property belonging to persons resident in or firms incorporated in enemy-occupied territory, i.e., Denmark, Belgium, Holland and Norway, should also be submitted to the Custodian of Enemy Property, unless otherwise ordered by him.

All French territory in Europe (including Corsica), Algeria, the French zone of Morocco, and Tunisia are also to be regarded as enemy territory for this purpose. In the case of territory now under enemy occupation, such returns are to be filed by the 31st October 1940, as the period of two months after the date on which the property in question vested in the Custodian of Enemy Property—which is the prescribed period during which such returns should ordinarily be filed—has already expired.

3. Persons who entertain doubts regarding the payment of any money due by them to parties in enemy countries (Germany and Italy) and enemy-occupied countries (such as Holland, Belgium and Denmark) are advised to get into touch with the office of the Custodian of Enemy Property or with any of the Scheduled Banks, who have been advised of the procedure to be followed in regard to such payments.

C. N. SHARPLES,
Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.
